

10 money quotes that make you think

by Jon Sevenker

There are hundreds of great quotes about money, investing, and personal finance. We've whittled these down and plucked out 10 with a deeper meaning than just dollars and cents.

1. "Investing should be more like watching paint dry or watching grass grow." - Paul Samuelson
2. "The big money is not in the buying and selling, but in the waiting." - Charlie Munger
3. "There are two kinds of people who lose a lot of money: the people who know nothing and the people who know everything." - Henry Kaufmann
4. "Imagine life as a game in which you are juggling some five balls in the air. You name them—work, family, health, friends, and spirit, and you're keeping all of these in the air. You will soon understand that work is a rubber ball. If you drop it, it will bounce back. But the other four balls—family, health, friends, and spirit—are made of glass. If you drop one of these, they will be irrevocably scuffed, marked, nicked, damaged, or even shattered. They will never be the same." - Brian Dyson
5. "It's good to have money and the things that money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure that you haven't lost the things that money can't buy." —George Lorimer
6. "While money can't buy happiness, it certainly lets you choose your own form of misery." — Groucho Marx
7. "Many folks think they aren't good at earning money when what they don't know is how to use it." — Frank A. Clark
8. "It's not how much money you make, but how much money you keep, how hard it works for you, and how many generations you keep it for." —Robert Kiyosaki
9. "Financial peace isn't the acquisition of stuff. It's learning to live on less than you make, so you can give money back and have money to invest. You can't win until you do this." - Dave Ramsey
10. "The quickest way to double your money is to fold it in half and put it in your back pocket." —Will Rogers
